

Where do we go from here?

Unfortunately, there will be some changes in your family situation. It is important that you discuss what you want with your parents. Answering the questions below may help you to talk about the future.

- a. Where are you going to live?
- b. When you are living away from one of your parents, how will you keep in contact with them?
- c. When would you like to spend time with your other parent?
- d. Who would you like to spend time with during holidays?
- e. Are you going to have to move house or change schools?
- f. Will both of your parents go to school or family events?